TOOK THE SAND.

John H. Wilson in Contempt of Court.

SUIT AGAINST HIM
AND LILUOKALANI

Must Show Cause why He Should not Be Punished--Other Cases.

P. DOLE, Attorney General, yesterday filed a complaint in the Circuit Court at the defendant in the case of the Territory vs. Her Majesty Liliuokalani and John H. Wilson for disobeying the injunction issued out of the Circuit Court.
He states that on February 2 a restraining order was issued by the First Judge restraining and enjoining John H. Wilson, et al., from taking sand or gravel below high water mark from the premises at Waikiki described in a deed from Kamehameha IV to A. Keohokaloie, fully set forth in the plain-tiff's petition for injunction. The injunction was served on February 23.
On that day, so the Attorney General alleges, the defendant, John Wilson, took and caused to be taken sand from the premises below high water mark and claimed the right and expressed the intention to take sand in large quantities from the zone between the ebb of the waves at high water and the flow of the waves at high water, the upper or mauka edge of said zone being a part of the beach clearly defined by the deposit of seaweed. An affidavit of A. M. Brown, High Sheriff, attached, says that on Friday, February 22, he was informed that the defendant was taking away sand and found that stakes had been driven along the beach for 200 or 300 feet and upon interviewing Wilson the latter told him that the line of stakes was at high water mark and he was taking it above that line, as they left a zone twenty feet wide mauka of the line of stakes washed by such incoming wave, but the zone was clearly marked by the line of seaweed.
The First Circuit Judge has ordered that Wilson appear before him at 10 o'clock this morning to show cause why he should not be dealt with for alleged contempt or required to abide such further order of the court as may pertain to justice.

QUEEN VICTORIA'S HAIR

Its Profusion, at Her Age, Has Always Been a Wonder.

Over 80 years old, Queen Victoria yet has luxuriant hair, which has for years been a marvel. The court physician, following Prof. Unna's discovery, has treated Her Majesty's scalp with a germ destroying preparation, which he has always kept secret. It is now known, however, that the remedy for dandruff, the germ destroying agent, is embodied in Newbro's Herpicide, the only hair preparation on the market that does destroy the dandruff germ.

Without dandruff, hair will grow profusely, and falling hair will be stopped.
"Destroy the cause, you remove the effect."

STOLE A WHEEL.

Kauwila Sentenced to Two Months at Hard Labor

The case of the people vs. Kauwila came up before the First Circuit Judge yesterday afternoon and the defendant was found guilty of larceny in the second degree, the jury recommending him to the mercy of the court on account of his youth.

Kauwila is a native boy of fourteen and his offense was that of stealing a bicycle belonging to Custom Guard Wirud. The boy attempted to sell the wheel to a Chinaman and inquiries as to how he came in possession of it resulted in his arrest.

The Chinaman in question was fined $25 by the court for disregarding a subpoena as witness and bench warrants were out for himself and two other witnesses. Satisfactory reasons for absence from the court were given by all except the Chinese, Ah Hong, who had waited at his store for a substitute who failed to materialize.

The judge gave the youthful criminal some good advice and sentenced him to two months' hard labor in Oahu prison.

MEMORIAL TO THE LATE W. A. HENSHALL

Paul Neumann, A. A. Wilder and John C. Baird, a committee appointed to prepare a memorial on the death of W. A. Henshall, yesterday handed the following to Judge Estee, which was read and ordered spread on the records:

Ordered, that this court learn with profound regret of the sudden and tragic death of William A. Henshall, Esq., on February 23 last, and desires to place this order on record in testimony of respect for the memory of the deceased.

Mr. Henshall was an honored member of the bar of this court and by his frankness and urbanity had merited and won the respect of all with whom he came in contact professionally. Being comparatively young in years, his friends had rightfully looked forward to the enjoyment by him of a long and successful career of honor and usefulness in the pursuit of his chosen profession. His untimely death casts a gloom over the entire community. To the bereaved widow and orphan are tendered the sincere condolence of his professional brethren who also prayer-fully commend the sorrowing to the protecting care of Him who nothing even the fall of a sparrow.

This order will be spread in full upon the minutes of the court and a certified copy thereof be sent by the clerk to the widow of the deceased.
